Related Docket No. 6320

Fire Claimants Karl Knight (on his own behalf and on behalf of his family) and Madoc Farms, LLC hereby file this notice that their failure to file an objection to confirmation of the Debtors' and Shareholders Proponents Joint Plan of Reorganization Dated March 16, 2020 (the "Plan") [Dkt. 6320], should not be deemed consent to the waiver of the right to any judicial review of allowance of their claims. Pursuant to the Court's statements on the record at the hearing on May 15, 2020 on certain business claimant's objections to the trust documents, the Court indicated that

1 one outcome could be that the Court finds that only those parties that timely objected to confirmation
2 of the Plan would retain such a right of review.

3 To the extent the Court finds that failure to object to the Plan shall be deemed consent to 4 these provisions, this statement should be deemed an objection solely for and limited to such 5 purpose. As personal injury and property damage fire victims, we do not consent to a binding 6 determination of our claims on the terms set forth in the Claims Resolution Procedures without any 7 avenue for judicial review.
